Reflector Staff

The Editors and Staff of the Reflector wish to take this opportunity to thank all who so earnestly participated in making our yearbook the best yet to have emerged from Walpole High School. The work of this staff, and especially Mr. Gray, has been highly original, as is sure to be apparent upon perusing the following pages. It is our sincere hope that the Reflector has preserved your school as you remember it and that it will bring back many pleasant memories in the years to come.

Dedication

To you, Miss McBride and Mr. Phinney, we give thanks. During our three years of high school you have always been willing to help us in everything we did. You have aided us in the paths of learning, and, above all, taught us the true meaning of sportsmanship. We cannot really thank you enough for all you have done for us.

The Class of 1959 dedicates this Reflector to you, with affection.

JOHN F. McGOVERN
Principal

TO THE CLASS OF 1959

In being graduated you have joined a long list of illustrious, loyal, and proud alumni who have contributed unselfishly to the welfare of all peoples.

May you gain the wisdom, courage, and tolerance needed to make the world of your generation a happy, prosperous, and peaceful unit.

John F. McGovern
Principal

TO THE SENIORS

Congratulations upon a successful completion of a part of your career.

To have been graduated from Walpole High School is a fine accomplishment and shows that you can succeed. Whatever the future has in store for you or whatever obstacles you may meet on the path toward your life objective, go forward with the same fine spirit of Walpole High School days.

My very best wishes for your continued success go with you.

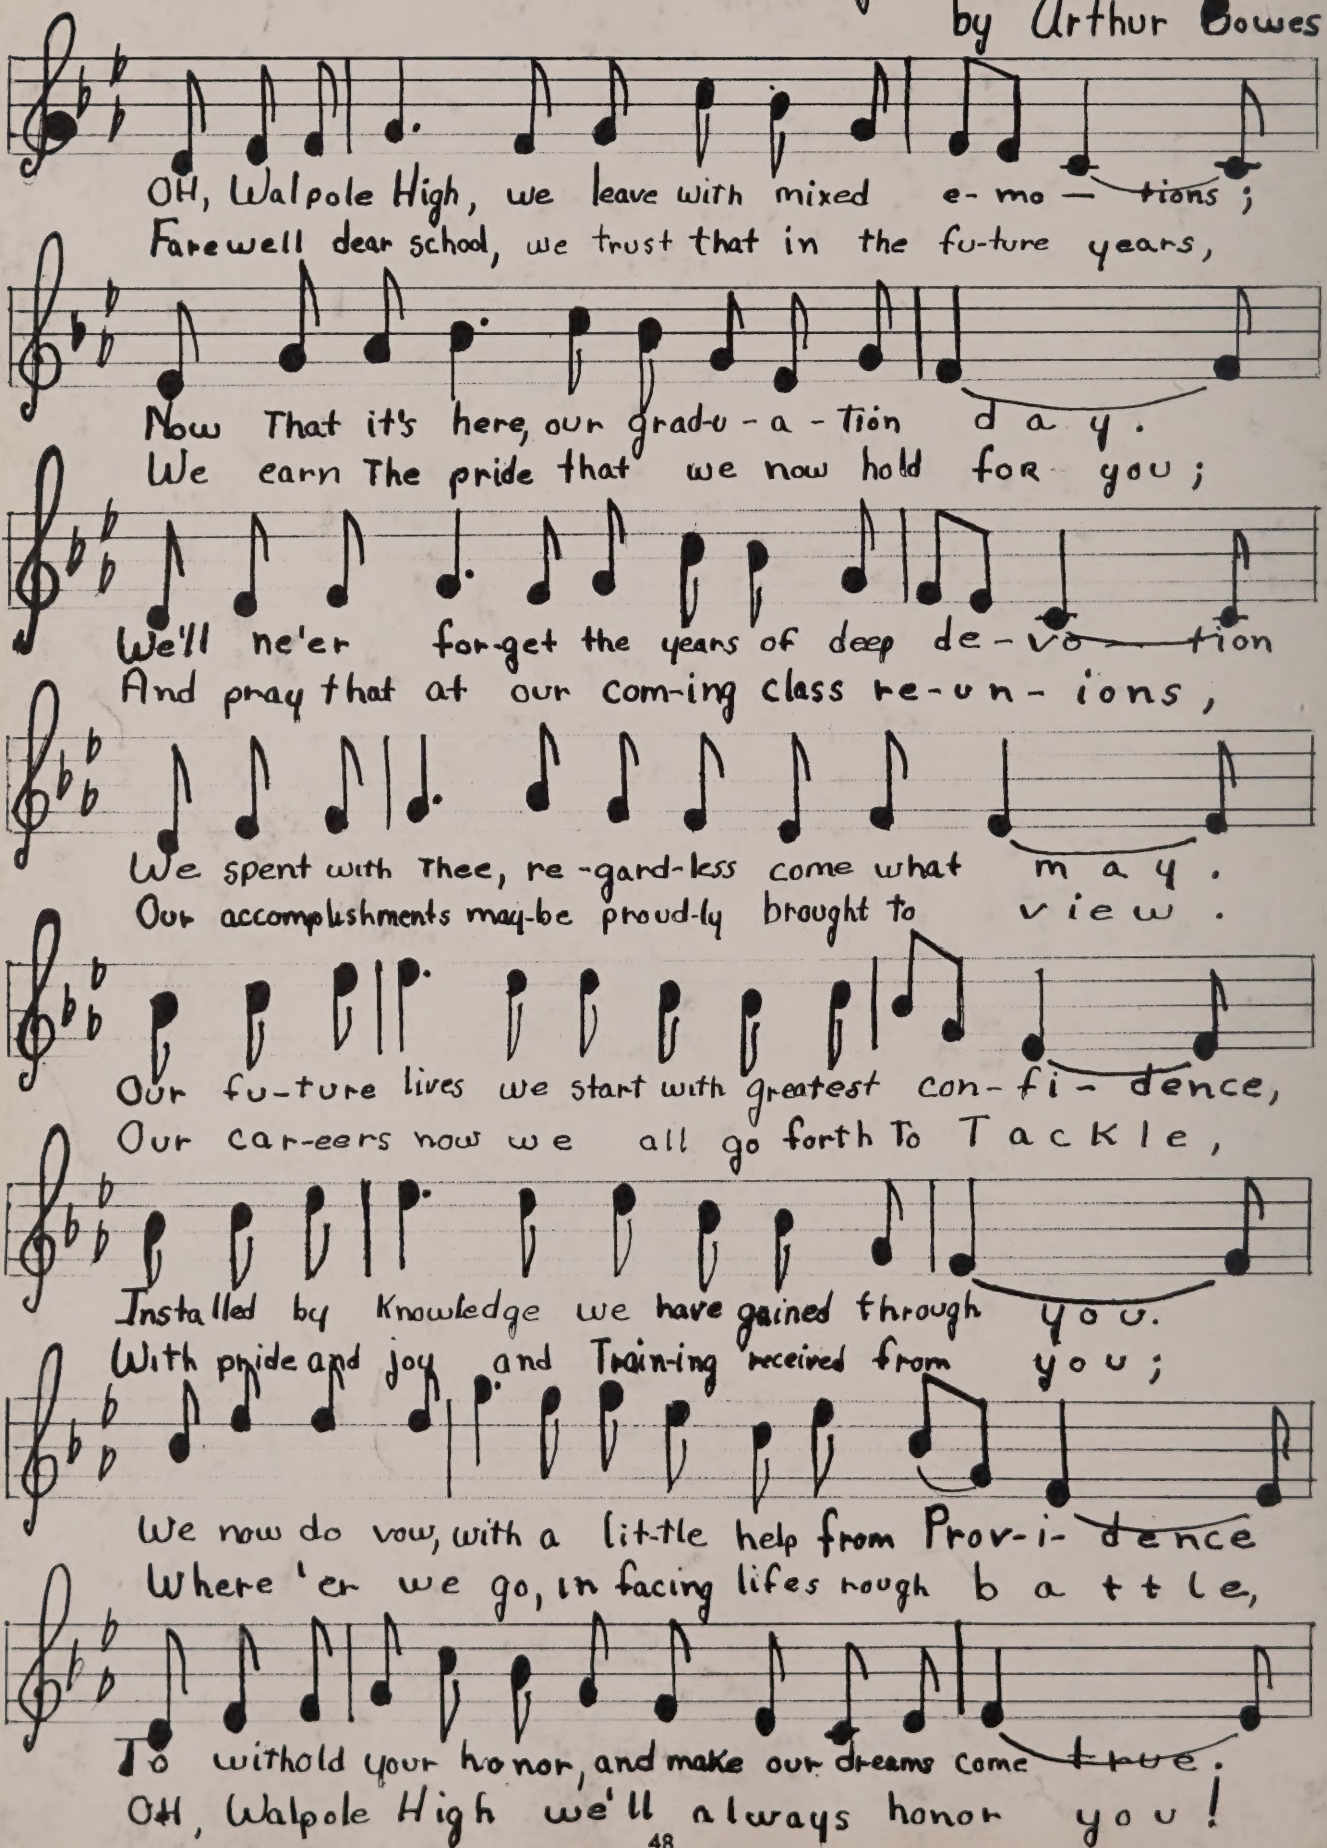
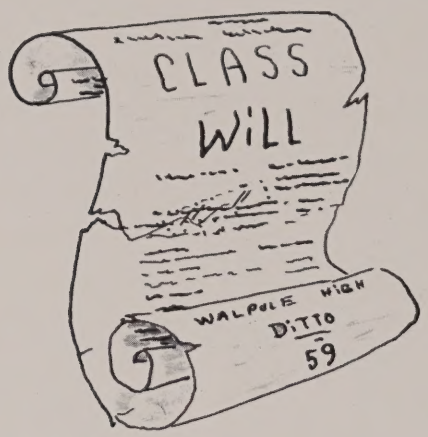
1959 Class Song

OH, Walpole High

by Arthur Bowes



Last Will and Testament



We of the Class of 1959, being of reasonably sound minds (?), do solemnly swear that this is our last will and testament, and do bequeath the following honorable gifts to our heirs, the underclassmen and advisors . . .

The Class of 1959 has trouble in leaving because its members are notorious for saying the w r o n g things, and they still have their feet in their mouths.

To the Class of 1960 we leave the chance to measure up to the standards of the Class of 1957.

To the Class of 1961 we leave nothing, since they seem to think they have everything.

To the faculty we leave their erroneous idea, "they said it couldn't be done."

Sue Aldrich leaves her false teeth to Ted Verderber for use in Spanish II.

Dottie Bisdnack and Bill Percy leave together.

Ralph Bonney leaves the A & P for the Stop & Shop.

Diana Booth leaves her vivacious ways to Betty Ann Hazlett.

Marilyn Bowden leaves with her pockets full of money.

Artie Bowes leaves his brains and brawn to James Hedbor.

Pete Brady leaves honorably.

Joanne Buck runs out to see Ron.

Jim Burke wills his disposition to Joe O'Neil.

Miriam Campbell takes Dave along.

Diane Cherella betokens her quiet ways to Carol Wojdag.

Judith Cherella heads for Mansfield.

Joe Civilinski passes his football to Jimmy.

Ellen Clare leaves for Broadway.

Steve Clayton wills his artistic abilities to Nancy Pinkham.

Lucille Cogswell tosses her baton to Nancy Farrar.

Bill Daly leaves us all in stitches.

Walter Daniel leaves his briefcase to Miss Newcomb.

Warren Davis leaves his code number to anyone who wants it.

Bob Dawson scampers out.

Arlene DeMichele leaves gladly.

Pete DeMichele leaves for Vermont.

Judie D'Entremont leaves, chasing the boys.

Marcia Dix leaves her height to Marcia Hartshorn.

Uncle Mary Edwards leaves with all of her nieces and nephews.

Reflecting Ahead

It is graduation night at Walpole High School, and, after receiving our diplomas, we finally are to pass through the doors into the cruel, wide world, a world which is crueler and more deceiving than anything our innocent minds can comprehend. For, unknown to us, Charlie "The Chip" Wise, while supposedly "goldbricking" in the Senior shop, has actually been scheming, devising, and perfecting a very ingenious machine. It seems that he has rigged this mechanism into the doors which we are passing through at this moment, and Charlie, being the last to pass through the sacred portals, is now standing on the threshold with a fiendish grin on his face. And, upon his closing the door, his machine not only shuts out the past and the present, but also brings us into the unlimited realm of an ultrafuture. But now we make a startling discovery! The space-age that had been anticipated has passed, and the world has degressed to a second Stone Age. Everyone goes his separate way, and time now is passing in this future age. And, on a peak, far away into the hills, we see Roy Barstow, gazing with rapture towards the skies. But he is distracted as he hears victorious sounds from the valley below, where his attention is drawn by three couples who are going to the local sports matches. It looks like Billy Percy dragging Dottie Bisdnack, Ralph Bonney dragging Sandy Sundquist, but what's this!? Who's dragging who?? It looks like Marilyn Bowden dragging Bobby Pike! She must have become the champion lady-wrestler of the time. And now, coming from a dinosaur path, we see three little termites—it's Pete White, Marty Feeney, and Paul Whittier. They too are going to the matches. We walk a little farther and come upon a small cave with fumes, smoke, and flames issuing forth. We hear coughing from inside, so we peek through the smoky mist only to find Robin Ellis, Steve Clayton, Buddy Hamilton, and Ian Johnson bending over a small pot-bellied rock stove; when all of a sudden a cry comes from the happy group—"We've discovered it! Hey, Mabel, Black Label!" And in prance four beauties in their bear (?) skins. They are Lynne "Mabel" Murray, Sheila O'Neil, Miriam Campbell, and Beryl Fifield. For need of fresh air, we continue on our journey.

On our way again, we happen upon a group of intellectuals discussing the barbaric issues at hand. Robert Dawson and Pete DeMichele are arguing with Diane Leon and Eleanor Lorusso about the fighting powers of the tyrannosaurus.

All of a sudden, like a flash of lightning, Mr. Gray runs past us, panting, trying desperately to reach something.

As he disappears over the hill, our attention is drawn by a cloud of dust in the distance. Upon closer investigation, we discover Karl Wells, Patty McDavitt, and Harry Nunes revving up their dinosaurs for a drag. Nearby the mechanics Ralph Glebus and Joe Tomaso are checking the safety valves on Cindy Nixon's dual-headed dinosaur with white-walled toenails. On to the track comes the chief starter, Evelyn Lockhart, carrying a small flag made out of Chubby Kivi's checked skivvies. As the flag is dropped, we see everyone digging out, leaving Pat Murphy at the starting line, trying to ram her reptile into low-low gear. As they round the first turn and head into the straightaway, we hear a loud whistle coming from—who's this?! It's Big George Nixon and Little Jim Burke frantically trying to run down the dragsters. But alas, to no avail! Their pterodactyls are no match for the souped-up dinosaurs.

Tiring of this sport, we head for the playground. Along the way, we meet the Commissioner of Sanitation, Paul Follett, collecting the garbage. We continue our way to the playground. Here a large crowd is gathered to watch the event of the day, a game between Larry Weener's Tiny Ten and Jim MacDonald's Terrible Tigers. Joe Sadaway, star left-out for the Tiny Ten, is kicking Dave's Headd to Skippy Civilinski, receiving for the Tigers. The ensuing scramble terminates with the bodily removal of Jim Hazlett and Billy Weltman. On the sidelines are the cheerleaders, led by Pat Ellison and Gloria Manocchio. Between the fifths, we are entertained by the bone twirlers, Lucille Cogswell, Joan Knaus, and Rosalie Moore. Here there is a brief pause in the afternoon's entertainment as Mr. Mac, governor of Stoneville, introduces Arthur R. Bowes, president of the S.P.C.W., the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Women. Unfortunately we are unable to start the second fifth due to technical difficulties. This being the case, we decide to motivate to a new locality. As we walk along a rocky path, our attention is drawn by a mouth-watering aroma of roasting platypus. Looking for the source, we spy Jim Robertson bending over a pit, stirring the hot coals under the tasty dish. While we are standing around waiting for a meal, we notice Mary Mastropieri lying on the hot coals, trying to lose her shakes. After a hearty meal, we spy, in the distance, a huge, hairy ape whirling off into the trees. Under one arm he is carrying Ruthy Sullivan, who is beating him with a hockey stick, and, under the other, Wendy Ruggles, who is brandishing scissors. As he disappears into his arboreal kingdom, we hear shrieks coming from a nearby cave. We enter, and see Ellen Clare, who is trying out for Jane in the latest Tarzan epic. And, looking around, we notice it is a regular beehive of activity. In one corner, a fashion show is being put on by Diana Booth and Judy Cherella, who are modeling the latest in snake-skins. Next to this display is a slave auction. Charlie Hall, the auctioneer, is trying desperately to sell some Democrat slaves for which he has no use. Among them we recognize Tom Hagen and another Tom. The next booth is a restaurant where we see Sue Aldrich and a few of her new-found friends eating turkey, fried spiders, and leap-frogs' legs, a meal which was chased and captured by Ruthy Roundy, who almost dint make it back in time for the feast. We are distracted from this happy group by a panting noise. We run out of the cave and again see Mr. Gray, still running as if to reach something. Wondering what it is that he is looking for, we follow him, but, unable to keep up with his pace, we fall back. While resting, Sue Maguire and Wixie ride by on a unicorn. Presently Sandy MacIvor and Sylvia Sullivan, who met while swimming from Scotland and Ireland respectively, come strolling by, wringing the water from their hair. After they pass, we decide to be on our way again. Sitting on a rock is Tom Fitzgerald, who is carving chessmen from mammoth tusks. Nearby we see the Honorable Peter Brady working over the Crusher. Next to him are Nicky Giandomenico and Joe Giampapa practicing their passes. As we travel deeper and deeper into the primeval jungle, we find "Monk" Wabbernack stealing bananas from Barb Waseleski's banana plantation. Crawling through the banana groves, we find Millie Petroni looking for the lost chord. And leaping from tree to tree is Mr. Gray, still trying to reach something. Hark! A bell! Upon the hilltop we see an old stone school. In it, "Deacon" Walsh is telling his students not to talk without permission but to put their hands down. And here comes Uncle Mary Edwards, trying to enroll some of her many nieces and nephews in this school, since no other would take them. In the back of the room we notice Kevin Hart and Susan Keach doing their times tables, still trying to pass to the fourth grade. Bill Johnson, Jerry Lake, and Ricky Kannally are practicing their putting by shooting spitballs into the inkwells. And over in the corner Judie D'Entremont is giving preliminary art lessons to Joanne Rowe, Joyce Ogren, and Donald Small, who are learning to paint on cave walls. Hanging from the ceiling are Eddie Bendinelli, Bill Daly, and Walter Daniel, airing out their wings. As we leave this place of friendliness and cheer, and hear sounds of music echoing from afar, we see Barnum & Boonstra's jungle circus. We enter, and the first one we see is Russell MacDonald, who is the barker for the carnival, announcing the coming attraction of the girls lined up behind him, who will do the ape's can-can. They are Millie Silvernail, Ellen Powers, Diana Makarevich, Carol O'Day, and Joyce Moser. After an instructive show, we move on, and soon come to a strong man exhibit, starring Warren Davis as Herk the Dirk. Sandi Simonelli is handing him the bar bells and Eleanor Urquhart is madly doing pushups and trying to outdo him. Going into the side show, we see Diane Cherella sitting on a weighing stone and the scales tipped off at four hundred pounds! Around the corner is a sign announcing the tall man exhibit, starring Pete Turco. And we hear an agonizing scream from the fire-eater, Bob Purdon, who has just burned his tongue. A large crowd is gathered around a big box with the word "Snakes" printed on it, when Kitsie Hill makes her entrance and starts her snake-charming act. Up above, walking the tightrope, is Karen Hansen. Janice Perry and Walter Vietze are acting as safety-men below, waiting to catch her if she falls. We fight our way through the crowd and come to another crowd, and, amid cheers and shouts, we view the spectacular (ta-ta-ta-ta-ta-ta!) Jean Holman and (ta-ta-ta-ta-ta-ta!) Arlene DeMichele who are acting as dinosaur-tamers. But, alas! They have not quite perfected their skills, and the show ends in tragedy, with both of them quite shaken-up.

As the sun begins to set on this average day, we leave this place of amusement and hear the rhythmic beats of Rusty Roberts drumming with a bone on a hollow log. He is announcing curfew, and Ed Kambour and Pete Mudgett accompany him, scaring all into their caves by emitting guttural sounds which, in 1959, were called singing. Running for the bus, which is driven by our old friend Monk, are the chosen few who were permitted to go on the class trip in 1959 and who are now on their way again. They are Marcia Dix, Jackie Gillis, Nancy Harris, and Paul Knaus. Bill Simmons, the town crier and curfew-checker, is chasing Linda Lehto, Joanne Buck, and Priscilla Rice, who have disobeyed the curfew. Marilyn Johnson and Mary Folan are chasing him, but they are unsuccessful in their attempts.

And, as the sun finally sinks in the North, we see, against the horizon, the bedraggled form of Mr. Gray, who is twenty-six miles and three hundred and eighty-five yards from his starting point, and who has finally met what he has been looking for all day—the deadline!!!

Reflecting Back

I

The mirror reflects back to the fall of 1955, when the class of 1959 first became a complete class. One of the first things we did that year was elect class officers. We chose four worthy people. They were James Michael Burke, President; Jerry Clancy, Vice-President; Martin Feeney, Secretary; and Eino Kivi, Treasurer. We were all looking forward to the next year when we would not be lowly Freshmen, but respected Sophomores.

II

After a pause for a summer vacation, we entered the new high school as timid but happy Sophomores. The Seniors welcomed us with a dance. They also provided entertainment which we all enjoyed.

After we had adjusted ourselves to the routine of Senior High School life, we chose our class officers. They were James Michael Burke, President; William Roberts, Vice-President; Diana Booth, Secretary; and Eino Kivi, Treasurer.

We had a magazine drive to raise money for assemblies. We Sophomores showed our school spirit by selling many subscriptions to the people of the town.

We ended our Sophomore year with a big record hop on the seventh of June.

On the nineteenth of June we went on our class trip to Nantasket. We all enjoyed the rides and the swimming, and arrived home all tanned and sunburned.

III

The Fall of 1957 started us in our third year of high school. Class officers were elected, and they were Peter Turco, President; Arthur Bowes, Vice-President; Mary Mastropieri, Secretary; and Marilyn Bowden, Treasurer.

On the twelfth of November, one representative was chosen from each home room.

The Junior year was ring year. We had a choice of six different rings, and, after we had voted on our choice, we ordered them. They finally came on the twenty-third of May.

In March we held a semi-formal Saint Patrick's Day dance. It was a great success.

In April we started on plans for our Junior Prom. Committees were chosen and the date for the Prom was set as the twenty-third of May. The theme was "Return to Paradise," and we are sure that it was the most beautiful Prom that ever did and ever will be put on in the halls of Walpole High School. The decorations were spectacular, and everyone had a wonderful time. A turkey dinner was planned for us at the King Philip after the Prom was over, and we all got engraved key chains.

In June we started to form a group to work on the yearbook the following year. We went out to get ads for the book. William Roberts, Susan Aldrich, and Kevin Hart were chosen as co-editors.

The girls' field hockey team was tops and the basketball, golf, and football teams proved that they were Walpole men. The hockey team really came through that year by winning the Bay State Championship, the Runner-up in the State contest, and finally the New England Championship.

We were proud to have some of our class members take part in the 1958 graduation exercises. Ellen Powers, Ruth Sullivan, Susan Aldrich, Priscilla Clapp, Mary Folan, Judith D'Entremont, Marilyn Bowden, and Joyce Moser were arch-bearers for the ceremony, and Peter Turco and Mary Mastropieri were Junior Marshals.

To close our Junior year another trip to Nantasket was arranged for the sixth of June. Nearly everyone in the class was there although the weather was unpredictable. And again we returned from the trip tired but happy.

IV

Our Senior year began in September of 1958, and we were at last the high and mighty class that was looked up to.

Representatives were chosen and a meeting was held on the twentieth of October. This meeting set the fourteenth of Novmber as the date of the dance to be given to welcome the Sophomores.

Also in November our guidance directors planned for the school a Career Day, in which people in many walks of life came to speak to us on their fields of work. We had a choice of seminars, and some of us were discussion leaders for the groups. It was truly an enjoyable and profitable day for all.

We held our own in sports our Senior year. The football team played wonderful games and on Thanksgiving Day scored a big upset up defeating Milford. The field hockey squad again kept their title as champions with an undefeated season. The basketball team did particularly well, and the hockey team proved that they were still tops.

An interesting event was planned to make money for the annual field hockey banquet. The ice hockey team agreed to play the field hockey team in a game of field hockey. Both teams came out, ready to play, in hilarious outfits, the boys wearing the girls' tunics and the girls wearing football jerseys and hockey shorts. The game, referreed by Miss Sline and Mr. Riley, ended in a tie.

The yearbook staff worked hastily to meet their deadlines. Our co-editors did a wonderful job with the aid of Mr. Gray. The staff arranged for the taking of class pictures and when they came through, everyone hounded everyone else for pictures.

Our Senior year is drawing to a close, and we are faced with the task of making many decisions. Graduation is getting nearer, and with it comes the end of our happy times at Walpole High School, upon which we shall always reflect with fondness.

SEPTEMBER 27
BRAINTREE 18—WALPOLE 0

The only game played on this rainy afternoon was Walpole versus Braintree, in what proved to be a discouraging day for all Walpole fans, an 18 to 0 loss.

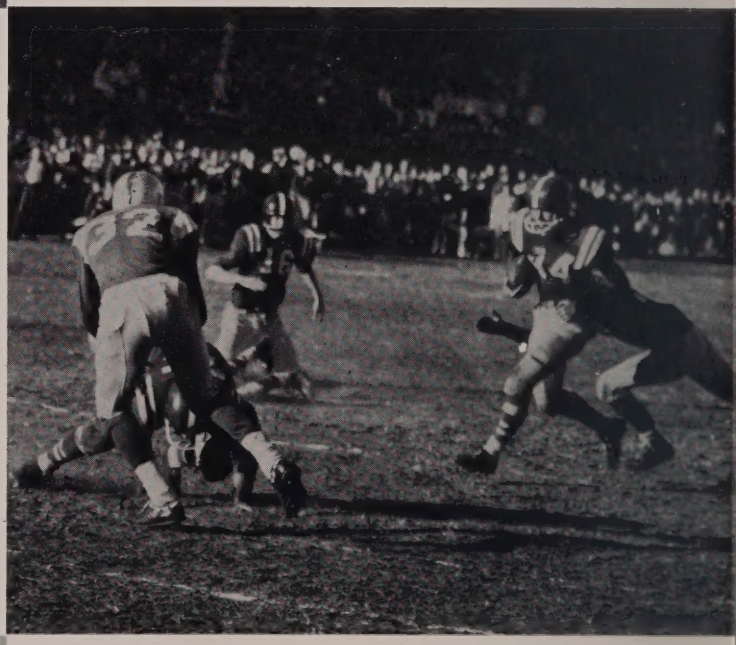
The only thing this game showed was that our opponents were the better swimmers in the six inches of water which covered the field throughout the game.

OCTOBER 4
NATICK 18—WALPOLE 0

Natick High football team proved to be a little more powerful than Walpole. They could not pierce the Walpole defense for a TD until the third period when Natick fought over for the first one. It was not until late in the last quarter of play that they were able to add two more touchdowns to make the score, after a hard battle, Natick 18, Walpole 0.

OCTOBER 11
NORWOOD 44—WALPOLE 6

Norwood's football team presented the "Hill Top" with the biggest score to be found in the records of the past decade. Norwood got an early 14 point jump over our boys. After being down 22 to 0, Jim Burke went for a TD making the score 22 to 6. Norwood had no trouble the rest of the game, winning 44-6.



OCTOBER 18
WALPOLE 20—FRAMINGHAM 18

This Walpole victory was more than welcome; it was a sparkling awakening of power that previously was dormant.

From the opening kick-off to the final period, Walpole was on top. Walpole found the goal line just enough to hold on to a victory 20-18.

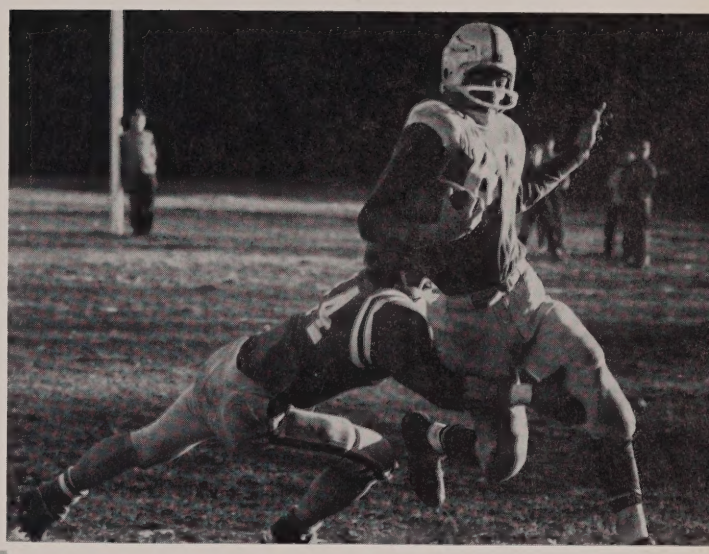
OCTOBER 25
NEEDHAM 14—WALPOLE 0

Walpole completely outplayed Needham defensively but could not do anything against them offensively. With Jim Burke and captain Skip Civilinski playing one of their better games of the season we were still defeated by a score of 14-0.

NOVEMBER 1
WALPOLE 14—DEDHAM 0

This was Walpole's second win of the season. After a no-score first quarter, we took an 8-0 lead when Tom Hagen caught a 14-yard pass and raced off for a touchdown with Jim Burke getting the two extra points. Midway through the third quarter Captain Skip Civilinski got the second touchdown and made the final score Walpole 14, Dedham 0.



NOVEMBER 8
WALPOLE 6—MILTON 14

After being completely outplayed in every department of the game during the first three periods of play, and behind 6-0 in the first minute, Milton managed to square accounts in the same period and then late in the final stanza push the ball over Walpole's goal line on third down to win by a score of 14-6.

NOVEMBER 15
WALPOLE 14—WELLESLEY 12

Walpole took an early eight pocket lead with Wellesley coming right back with the touchdown to make the score 8-6 at the end of the first half.

In the second half, each team got six points which were just enough for Walpole to come out on top by a score of 14-12.

NOVEMBER 27
WALPOLE 22—MILFORD 0

Captain Skip Civilinski, Jim Burke, and Pete DeMichele getting the points for Walpole was more than enough to have us take the turkey day game by a count of 22-0. Jim Burke got the first touchdown early in the game with Skip getting the other two and Pete DeMichele with the extra points.

WALPOLE 2 FRAMINGHAM 3
First Game

The defense took all scoring honors in the game, Larry Giandomenico and Ted Verderber each claiming one. The Framingham goals were scored by periods, one in each. Walpole scored one in the first, one in the second and did everything but put the puck in the net in the third.

WALPOLE 7 FRAMINGHAM 1
Eighth Game

An excited crowd watched Walpole knock Framingham out of second place by defeating them 7 to 1. Joe Tarbell, Tom Walsh, and Paul Rafuse each picked up two goals. Bob Mills claimed the seventh late in the third period. Pete Bechunas was bothered by nine shots while the Framingham goalie was kept busy with twenty-six. The lone Framingham goal was scored in the first period on a breakaway.

WALPOLE 4 WATERTOWN 1
Second Game

In the last minutes of the first period Joe Tarbell planted the puck in the Watertown net. In the second both clubs got one apiece, Tom Walsh doing the honors for Walpole. This made it 2 to 1 Walpole. As the third period opened, Watertown started to tire. Rafuse and Giampapa each took advantage of this and scored one apiece.

WALPOLE 3 WATERTOWN 3
Ninth Game

An amazed crowd watched Walpole and Watertown tie. Watertown drew first blood early in the first period on a shot from the blue line. In the second period Watertown scored again. This made the score 2 to 0 Watertown. Later in the second period Tom Walsh scored Walpole's first goal by poking the puck into the net. In the third period Ted Verderber started off by hitting the netting behind the Watertown goalie. Watertown tallied once more to make it 3 to 2. On the next play Tom Walsh tied it up with his second goal of the night.

JIM NIXON

WALPOLE 1 NORWOOD 2
Third Game

In the first five minutes of this game, Norwood had the lead. At the nine-minute-mark Larry Giandomenico let loose with one of his low slap shots that beat the Norwood goalie. In the second period, Norwood scored again on a pass from behind the Walpole net. This made the score 2 to 1 Norwood. Walpole shot hard at the Norwood net but with no luck. The seconds were passing slowly and when the buzzer rang the score was Norwood 2, Walpole 1.

WALPOLE 2 NORWOOD 3
Tenth Game

Thirty-five hundred people watched Norwood defeat Walpole for the second time in one season. The first period was a hard and fast brand of hockey but it ended in a scoreless tie. In the second period, Norwood scored first and toward the end of the period scored again making it 2-0 Norwood. Then Tom Walsh, from his right wing possession, put the disc into the Norwood net. Soon after this, Walpole got its chance to tie up the game with a penalty shot. Ted Verderber was chosen to take the free shot. He skated in on the Norwood goalie—shot—it hit the post! The period ended in a 2-1 deadlock. In the third period with a minute and a half left, Pete Bechunas was called from the nets. Walpole tried to keep the puck in the Norwood end and was succeeding when the puck was fired past Walpole's defense in our end. Walpole became disorganized and Norwood finally scored. Soon after this, Paul Rafuse scored from in front of the Norwood cage.

TOM WALSH

WALPOLE 3 B. C. HIGH 0
Fourth Game

In an exciting game Walpole whitewashed B. C. High 3-0. The first two periods of hustling but scoreless hockey showed Walpole had the edge over the B. C. High five. With 51 seconds gone in the third period Tom Walsh banged the little black disc home on a pass from the corner by Rafuse. From the face-off, Walsh brought the puck into the B. C. zone, shot it, hit the post—but Jim Nixon was on the spot and he beat the B. C. goalie making the score 2-0. Later in the period on a pass from Kelley, Desrosiers planted the puck in the B. C. net for goal number three.

WALPOLE 2 B. C. HIGH 1
Eleventh Game

The first period was almost over when Jim Nixon got the puck on the point. He fired for the upper corner and hit the netting behind the B. C. High goalie. In the second period, Walpole scored again, this time Verderber to Kelley who broke around the defense and fired. The puck was past the goalie before he even saw it. In the third period, B. C. scored. It was on a break away. Ted Verderber caught up and tied up the B. C. player. He still managed to get a shot off at Bechunas. The game ended Walpole 2, B. C. High 1.

WALPOLE 3 WALTHAM 0
Thirteenth Game

By winning this game Walpole assured themselves a spot in the state tourney. Walpole scored two in the first period, Verderber and Kelley doing the honors. Walpole scored another goal in the second period, Bruce Norwell putting this one in the net. Pete Bechunas was bothered by seven shots while the Waltham goalie was bothered by thirty-seven.

JOE GIAMPAPA

WALPOLE 4 WALTHAM 1
Sixth Game

Early in the first period Larry Hogan picked up the puck forty feet in front of the Waltham net and tallied for Walpole's first goal. Soon after, Waltham took advantage of an open net and scored. Late in the second period, Larry Hogan passed to Giampapa who broke around the defense and hit the light for a goal. This made it 2-1 Walpole. Early in the third period, the same combination Hogan to Giampapa tallied again. Later in the period, a face off was called in the Waltham end, the puck was battered back to Verderber for a shot. The Waltham goalie knocked it down but Rafuse was on the spot to bang it home.

NICK GIANDOMENICO

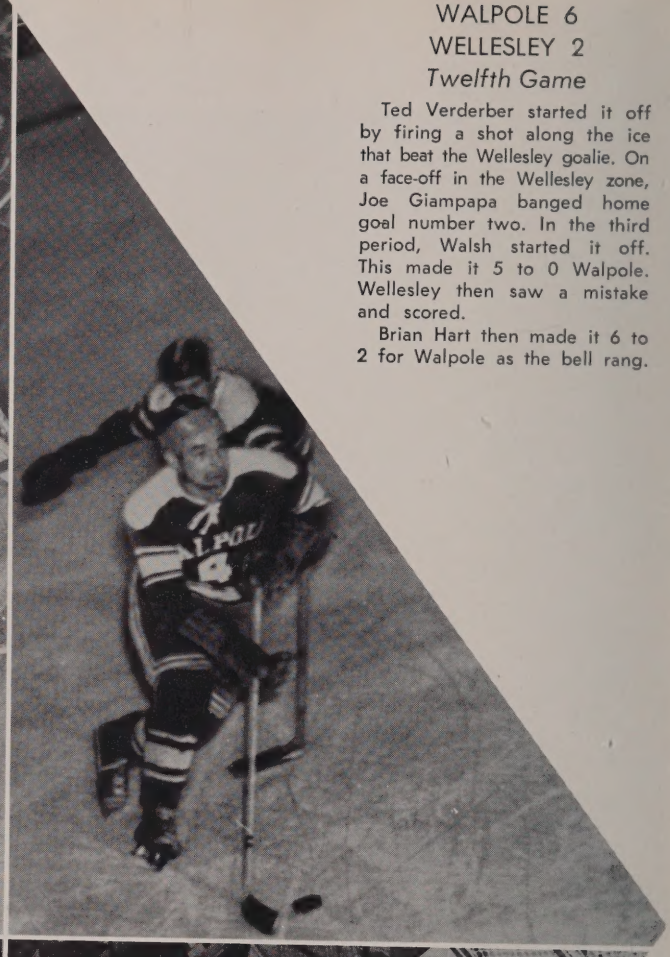
WALPOLE 4
WELLESLEY 0
Fifth Game

The first period found both teams scoreless. The second period opened slowly until Joe Giampapa found a hole in Wellesley's goal and put the black disc into the cage. Soon after, Verderber picked up a pass from Kelley and went the length of the ice to score. As the second period came to a close, the score was Walpole 2, Wellesley 0. As the third period opened Joe Tarbell took a pass from Tom Walsh and skated in to score. The next goal was just the opposite, Tom Walsh taking the pass from Tarbell.

WALPOLE 6
WELLESLEY 2
Twelfth Game

Ted Verderber started it off by firing a shot along the ice that beat the Wellesley goalie. On a face-off in the Wellesley zone, Joe Giampapa banged home goal number two. In the third period, Walsh started it off. This made it 5 to 0 Walpole. Wellesley then saw a mistake and scored.

Brian Hart then made it 6 to 2 for Walpole as the bell rang.



WALPOLE 3
NEEDHAM 2
Seventh Game

In the packed Boston Arena, Walpole defeated Needham 3-2 which enabled Walpole to enter a three-way tie for second place. Needham and Walpole each got one goal in the first period. The second period was hard fought but no one seemed to be able to put the puck into the net. In the third period, Ralph Kelly rounded the defense and rifled one past the Needham goalie. Soon after, Needham tied it up 2 all. Captain Joe Tarbell put on the finishing touches when he slipped on past Eberly at 8:15 in the third and final period.

NEEDHAM 4
Fourteenth Game

In the first period, Needham wired two past Bechunas. In the second period they put one more by him. On these three goals, Bechunas didn't have a chance. In the third period, Walpole outplayed Needham but each team scored one apiece, Tom Walsh doing the honors for Walpole.

This year's baseball team, despite the loss of a good coach, should have a winning season with the help of the ten returning seniors. Last year, like the Red Sox, Walpole's team had a successful but not out standing season. This year we hope to see another trophy added to one of our showcases.

The golf team, still upholding the Walpole High School tradition, won the Massachusetts and Bay State Championship and added more trophies to the showcase.

They had a tough play-off series to overcome before taking the final verdict from favored Needham and Natick.

The team hopes that this spring will bring another successful season.

Walpole's 1958 track team played to the best of its ability, but unfortunately, its season proved to be a discouraging one. The tracksters went without a win but nevertheless they gave every opposing team a good fight. Jim D'Entremont and Ken Eklund, co-captains of the team, were indispensible. The team as a whole played a great season.

Reflecting the greatness of our class the basketball team established more firsts at Walpole High than any team ever did before, although they didn't take the big first, a league championship. They were, however, the first Walpole team to win 10 games in the strong Bay State League; they were the first Walpole team to finish as high as third, the first to go undefeated at home, the first to score 1,000 points for a season, and the first Walpole team ever to beat Natick, Braintree, and Wellesley.

They were also the first team to fill Walpole's new gymnasium as the fans finally came to the support of the basketball team. Naturally the class of 1959 was the reason for this fine showing (with great help, of course, from Coach Phinney). Leading stars were J. Lake, second high scorer and all-star player; M. Feeney; Co-Captains P. Turco and J. Hazlett, also an all-star player; J. Sadaway; E. Kivi; and R. Pike.

Boys' Tennis

With inadequate facilities and only one veteran returning, tennis is the orphan among Walpole High sports. We feel sure, however, that the Class of 1959 will come to the support of the game and join letterman John Holt to give Walpole a representative court team. One thing is certain: Walpole needs more tennis courts, especially near the school, if our students are to have a chance to challenge the better Bay State League schools.

Field Hockey

FRONT: Marilyn Bowden, Joanne Rowe, Kitsie Hill, Sue Aldrich, Ellen Powers, Barbara Waseleski, Carol O'Day. SECOND ROW: Sally Parsons, Sandra MacIvor, Janet Sayers, Pat Murphy, Chris Santosusso.

The Girls' Field Hockey Team went undefeated again this year winning seven games and tying one. They scored a total of twenty-five points and had only two goals scored against them. This was due to the excellent defensive team work of Joanne Rowe, Sally Parsons and Sandra MacIvor as halfbacks; Ellen Powers, Barbara Waseleski, and Pat Murphy as fullbacks; and Sue Aldrich as goalie and the aggressive forwards Carol O'Day, Chris Santosusso and Janet Sayers as wings; Kitsie Hill and Marilyn Bowden as inners; and Ruth Sullivan as center.

Thanks to the excellent coaching of Miss McBride, the team had a very profitable and successful season.

The Walpole High School girls' basketball team this year had a fairly successful season, winning with spirit and losing with good sportsmanship (and with the help of the referees). The co-captains of the squad were Carol O'Day and Marilyn Bowden. They were led on by the able coaching of Miss Phyllis McBride, and helped by manager Martha Holman and assistant manager Susan Kennedy.

Girls' Tennis

The girls' tennis team was quite successful in 1958. Although many seniors left, there are a few junior and senior lettermen returning this year: Diana Makarevich, Ruth Sullivan, Sandy MacIvor, Kitsie Hill, and Jan Sayers. The team is looking forward to a successful season in 1959 under the able coaching of Miss McBride.

The softball team in 1958 had a rather unsuccessful season, but, nevertheless, the girls played well, and we cannot complain. The team was composed largely of seniors, but there are still many who will return this year. Among them are Carol O'Day, Ellen Powers, and Barb Waseleski.

To the Cheerleaders of Walpole High we owe a debt of gratitude. Through their long practices and sacrifices which they endure for our benefit, they are always ready with a smile and with plenty of pep. Not only are they at every game leading their classmates on, but they have represented us in competitions and have brought us back many trophies.

Last year they were Bay State Champions and placed first in three competitions out of five. In the other two, they came back with two second place trophies.

So far this year, they have placed second in one competition, and are looking forward to the Bay State and the Southeastern Massachusetts Tournaments.

The Baton Squad this year has been very active. They marched at all the football games, and have attended a competition at Dedham High School. They are also looking forward to the time when they are going to give their own competition in April.

Good luck and congratulations on a wonderful job, girls!

The Student Council is composed of twenty-six members from the Senior, Junior, and Sophomore classes. They act as a school congress to discuss students' ideas about improvements that might be made in our school and in the running of our school. Under a competent advisor, Mr. O'Donnell, this organization has made rapid strides in elevating itself to a position of leadership and respect in our school. Several interesting events are planned for the spring.

The Stylus staff, under the able supervision of Mrs. Heaps, has started to issue news supplements between regular issues this year. This lets us know about all the school happenings even if an issue is not planned, and we all think it is a good idea. During the year the co-editors and some other staff members attended a high school newspaper editors' conference sponsored by the Boston Globe. The speakers were Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein II. Another trip is planned for the spring, this time to the Christian Science Monitor building.

Congratulations on a really fine newspaper!

FIRST ROW: C. Hall, M. Mastropieri, E. Powers, S. Aldrich, J. Sayers, J. Tarbell. SECOND ROW: Miss Darmedy, R. Pike, P. Brady, J. Lukis, R. Osterhout.

The Honorary Society consists of members elected to it by a point system and approved by several teachers. The first half of this year, it consisted of five seniors. In the election after the second marking period, three seniors and six juniors were chosen. Honorary Society's main activities are its doughnut drive in the spring followed by its annual trip to Boston to a play and dinner.

The Glee Club is one of the high school's largest clubs this year, with over one hundred members. Although the large number hinders many activities, a number of things are planned. The club put on a Christmas concert and a Band-Glee Club concert. The operetta being produced this year is Marianne, with a truly talented cast. Other activities planned are exchange concerts with other schools and a dance in the spring.

Debating Society

The Debating Society is fast becoming an institution at Walpole High School. Its members have brought honor to us in state and local competition. We have also enjoyed their inter-club debates in assembly. It requires a great deal of research and preparation to debate the questions which are proposed for their contests, and they deserve recognition as one of the school's hardest-working clubs.

Current Events Club

Newly-formed this year, the Current Events Club devotes itself to the discussion and analysis of social and political problems of the time. Due to its obvious value to the Debating Society, the members of that group joined the Current Events Club at an early date. The Current Events Club has been most instrumental in helping its members to recognize and deal with the problems of the modern world.

REFLECTIONS

Life is a now and then thing.

NOW is the time of graduation, of celebration.

THEN is the time in the future for remembering.

We wish you success in building fond memories in the years beyond high school.
